AFHA 2013 Spring Stakeholders Meeting: We're Looking for Your Input!

WHAT: At Appalachian Forest Heritage Area, we are starting a planning process to explore directions for our organization's future. An essential part of our planning process will be input from you, the community. Come to the Stakeholders Meeting to learn about AFHA's regional heritage, conservation, and historic preservation projects, and learn about plans for potential National Heritage Area Designation. You bring your comments, and we'll provide the lunch!

WHERE: City of Richwood, Nicholas County, WV (see schedule below)

WHEN: Friday, April 12th, schedule as follows:

- 9:00 am - guided tour of Collins Hardwood (108 E. Main St.)
- 10:00 am - AFHA news and AmeriCorps team reports presented, in Richwood City Hall (6 White Ave.)
- 11:30 am - panel discussion led by Blueprint Communities, in Richwood City Hall
- CATERED LUNCH
- 12:30 pm - public meeting, discussion of AFHA accomplishments and future directions, in Richwood City Hall

RSVP: If you plan to attend, or if you have any questions, please email info@appalachianforest.us, or call 304-636-6182.

ACCOMMODATIONS: If you are interested in booking for yourself, try: Four Seasons Lodge (one-half mile east of Richwood on WV 39); Phone: 304-846-4605
