Exhibit Opening: "Discovering the Appalachian Forest"

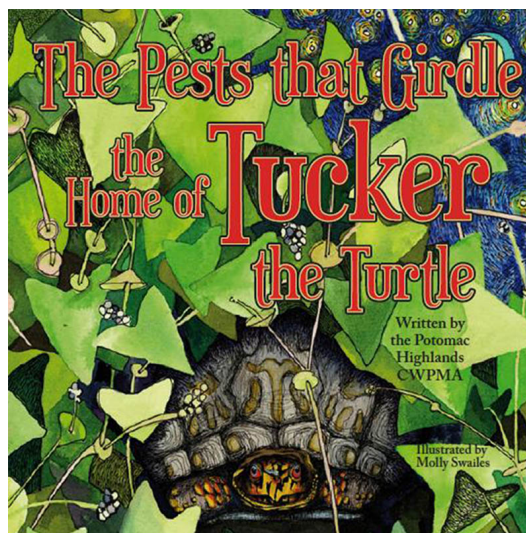

AFHA is proud to unveil a new exhibit to the public: Discovering the Appalachian Forest. Both modern and historic photos tell the story our forest: its natural splendor, its historic significance, its place in industry, and its influence on local lives and hearts. Come see Discovering the Appalachian Forest for the first time, on display at the Darden Mill in Elkins (2 1/2 Railroad Avenue). There will be an open house on Friday, November 8th from 4pm - 6pm and on Saturday, November 9th from 10am - 4pm. The event is free of charge, but donations are welcome! Questions? Email info@appalachianforest.us. And after the open house, don't forget to come to:

The Pests that Girdle the Home of Tucker the Turtle is a brand new WV children's book and a project of AFHA and the Potomac Highlands CWPMA. The book tells the story of a native turtle and how non-native invasive species are affecting his home. On Saturday, November 9th from 4pm - 6pm, Tucker's Big Bash will be a celebration of the release of the book, featuring a book signing by the authors and illustrator, a reading of the book, an art auction of the sixteen original watercolors, hands-on activities for children, and snacks (of course)! The event will also be held at the Darden Mill, so don't forget to check out AFHA's new exhibit while you're there! Questions? Email tuckertheturtle1@gmail.com.
